Dear :

This responds to correspondence dated February 26, 2019 requesting that the Internal Revenue Service ("Service") grant Taxpayer an extension of time under Treas. Reg. §§ 301.9100-1 and 301.9100-3 to file Form 4876-A ("Election To Be Treated as an Interest Charge DISC") for Taxpayer's first taxable year. Additional information was submitted in a letter dated June 10, 2019.

The ruling contained in this letter is based upon information and representations submitted by Taxpayer and Accounting Firm 1, and accompanied by affidavits and penalty of perjury statements executed by appropriate parties. This office has not verified any of the materials submitted in support of the request for a ruling. It is subject to verification on examination.

FACTS

Taxpayer is a domestic corporation with a calendar taxable year. Taxpayer was formed on Date 1 to operate as an interest charge domestic international sales corporation (“IC-DISC”) and has established a commission arrangement with Company. Both Taxpayer and Company are owned in the same proportion by Individuals 1, 2 and 3 (the “Shareholders”).

Taxpayer was formed as a result of discussions between the Shareholders and Law Firm about establishing an IC-DISC to take advantage of Company’s foreign sales activities. Law Firm had provided legal assistance to the Shareholders’ other related businesses for many years, including organizing another IC-DISC. Similar to past arrangements, the Shareholders retained Law Firm to organize Taxpayer as an IC-DISC, including preparing the required corporate documents to organize Taxpayer as a legal entity. Law Firm, however, anticipated that Accounting Firm 2 would prepare and timely file Form 4876-A.

During the preparation of Taxpayer’s Form 1120-IC-DISC (“Interest Charge Domestic International Sales Corporation Return”) for Year 1, Accounting Firm 2 realized that Form 4876-A had never been filed. Accounting Firm 2 nonetheless filed Form 4876-A with Taxpayer’s Year 1 Form 1120-IC-DISC. The Service subsequently acknowledged receipt of Taxpayer’s Form 4876-A but declined to accept the election as timely for Year 1. Since its incorporation, Taxpayer has conducted business and complied with all relevant rules and procedures consistent with its understanding that it was an IC-DISC.

Accounting Firm 1 submitted this request for relief on behalf of Taxpayer under Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-3 for an extension of time to file Form 4876-A for Year 1, Taxpayer’s first taxable year.

LAW AND ANALYSIS

Section 992(b)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code<sup>1</sup> provides that an election by a corporation to be treated as a DISC<sup>2</sup> shall be made by such corporation for a taxable year at any time during the 90-day period immediately preceding the beginning of the taxable year, except that the Secretary may give his consent to the making of an election at such other times as he may designate.

Section 992(b)(1)(B) provides that the election shall be made in the manner prescribed by the Secretary and shall be valid only if all persons who are shareholders in such corporation on the first day of the first taxable year for which such election is effective consent to the election.

<sup>2</sup> As used in this letter, the terms “IC-DISC” and “DISC” have the same meaning.

Treasury Regulation § 1.921-1T(b)(1) provides, in part, that a corporation electing IC-DISC status must file Form 4876-A and that a corporation electing to be treated as an IC-DISC for its first taxable year shall make its election within 90 days after the beginning of that year.

Treasury Regulation § 301.9100-1(c) provides, in part, that the Commissioner, in exercising the Commissioner's discretion, may grant a reasonable extension of time under the rules set forth in Treas. Reg. §§ 301.9100-2 and 301.9100-3 to make a regulatory election under all subtitles of the Code except subtitles E, G, H, and I.

Treasury Regulation § 301.9100-1(b) provides that a regulatory election is an election whose due date is prescribed by a regulation published in the Federal Register, or a revenue ruling, revenue procedure, notice, or announcement published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin. For this purpose, an election includes an application for relief in respect of tax.

Treasury Regulation § 301.9100-3(a) provides that requests for extensions of time for regulatory elections that do not meet the requirements of Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-2 (automatic extensions) must be made under the rules of Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-3. Requests for relief subject to Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-3 will be granted when the taxpayer provides the evidence (including affidavits described in Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-3(e)) to establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith, and that the grant of relief will not prejudice the interests of the Government.

The IC-DISC election described in Treas. Reg. § 1.921-1T(b)(1) is a regulatory election as defined in Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-1(b). Therefore, the Commissioner has discretionary authority under Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-1(c) to grant Taxpayer an extension of time, provided that Taxpayer satisfies the standards for relief set forth in Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-3.

Based on the facts and representations submitted with Taxpayer's ruling request, we conclude that Taxpayer satisfies Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-3(a). Accordingly, Taxpayer is granted an extension of time of 60 days from the date of this ruling letter to file Form 4876-A. Such filing will be treated as a timely election to be treated as an IC-DISC for Taxpayer's first taxable year, Year 1.

The granting of an extension in this ruling letter is not a determination that Taxpayer is otherwise eligible to make the election or to claim IC-DISC status or benefits. See Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-1(a). Taxpayer should attach a copy of this ruling letter to its Form 4876-A and Federal income tax return for the taxable years to which this ruling letter applies.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer requesting it. Section 6110(k)(3) provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent. Except as expressly provided herein, no opinion is expressed or implied concerning the tax consequences of any aspect of any transaction or item discussed or referenced in this letter.

In accordance with the Power of Attorney on file with this office, a copy of this letter is being sent to your authorized representatives.

Sincerely,
